

Martin Doblmeier (Doe – bull – myer) is the founder and president of Journey Films, a film and television production company in Alexandria, Virginia with a focus on religion, faith and spirituality.

He holds degrees in Religious Studies, Broadcast Journalism, and two honorary degrees.

He has two Emmy Awards,

He is a three-time winner at the US/International Film Festival, four-time winner of the Wilbur Award and an eight-time winner of the prestigious Gabriel Award for best film on a topic of religion in America.

Martin has produced more than 30 award-winning films that have aired mostly on PBS but also on ABC, NBC, the BBC and the History Channel. He has filmed in more than 50 countries and profiled numerous Nobel Prize winners, leading religious figures and heads of state.

His films include the highly acclaimed:

BONHOEFFER, a documentary film that broke box office records in many cities and tells the story of the German theologian and Nazi resister, Dietrich Bonhoeffer...

The Power of Forgiveness...that included Elie Wiesel, Buddhist master Thich Nhat Hanh and others...

An American Conscience: The Reinhold Niebuhr Story now airing nationally on PBS stations...

And now

Backs Against the Walls: The Howard Thurman Story...